

Conversations with Jennifer Johnson

Good afternoon Americans and Globally. People never cease to amaze me. The last article I wrote was titled "American is losing its identity through Ignorance, part 1 and part 2. Someone wrote some cruel things, because they don't want you to be truthfully subverting Donald J. Trump, etc. Viewers: I really want to share these negative comments and what I think.

jonny smithers says:

Your acute case of Trump derangement syndrome is not reconcilable with you being a "christian". ... you just a typical, run-of-the-mill prisoner who hates the authority keep you incarcerated and you merely jump on the "fuck the system" bandwagon only because your peers are the same, America-hating way. ... I did pray to Almighty God and ~~Jesus~~ Jesus above that Trump would smash that Satan/dem/ camel harris and God, in His Majesty, answered my heartfelt prayers and installed the Great Man Donald J. Trump as My president and your president. ... your pathetic confusion will go away before too long once Trump handles our business. ... Trump (God) bless you sweetheart. ...

you need some meds. ... put in a request form to make an appointment with the institution quack. ... you'll be alright after that. ...

I have been writing blogs for almost three decades. This is sad for a person to even think like that. What is more distasteful that Donald J. Trump has arouse the crowd that is uneducated with I don't care spirit that loves chaos. Their life do not have no order so it is easy to tell somebody else what they need to do. I bet you this very person will lose it in the next moment. Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. ————— I drop my pen on this person Jonny Smither-nonesense. Hello my viewers, how has life been treating my friends. Did everyone enjoy the Grammys, I did for sure. I love award shows on Day I will be able to walk on the red carpet. I can't wait. Superbowl tomorrow, I am rooting for Eagles and I can't wait to see Kendrick Lamar and SZA. Everyone I am so proud of myself. I graduated with my Bachelor of Arts in Business Communication. I triple minorred with Sociology, Business Administration and Business Management. I passed my Servsafe and I was inducted in the Society by the Alpha Alpha Rho Chapter at Ashland University. It is a honor to be LAMBDA PI ETA, The National Communication Association Honor Society. But what happen now that the music stop and nobody cares about my achievements. I am deemed as a number, body to be counted and just another inmate that the board keeps denying because people can't handle the truth. It's becoming more evident when you are a person who stand up for the truth - (1) you will become a joking matter or gossipping session to people. They will try to make you fall so they can say I told you so, she aint who you think she are. (2) Someone will start to steal your shine - by putting your light out ~~with~~ with false rumors or always saying something negative about you. The ears they have will begin to ~~mess~~ engaging in that person mess. ~~While~~ While all the time the person is jealous of the person that they trying steal their shine, and dont want nobody to be friends ~~with~~ ^{with} that person.

People its evident that we have a mess president and staff. Many people personally are messy, While trying to justify their behavior. God is not the author of confusion. But everywhere you turn Its some foolishness riding in the air. The ones of us that has commonsense and God's wisdom has to stand up for what is right and dismiss people out of our path that is not going to help us to grow and help us to get where we trying to go. Flowers are ugly when you have all them weeds growing in the flower bed. But when you clean out all the unnecessary weed it becomes beautiful flower and the bed.

If you don't agree with Trump and his administration doing its up to the Republican and Democrats to impreach them. That is the only way the mess stops in DC. Our government, family, friends and co-worker nor church relationships should not consist of confusion and chaos. God is not a God of Confusion. A lot of times confusion comes from people being in the wrong lane of somebody else.
~~But~~ When a person get out of pocket its everybody else business, because of what that person did.
Such as deport all illegal immigrant back to their Country second stating they all criminals - but the truth of the matter - look like Trump would have ~~better~~ better immigrants that are incarcerated because they are ~~to~~ criminals. STAY tune more
