Private & Public

To engraft my heart a craft of Art pure! —
In the interest of Poetry's good deed:
A private public alloting Hearts' bleed;
A blood of thy own language, I assure! —
Yet, do I feel concern for the future
Who'll be there to love me for act and deed
Carried out soul-fit and avid in creed
As I am him, and he is I! pictured
Upon the secrets of the heart published
Once... twice... here, there AS God may so let
A blessing bade me honor to kiss heart
Once in a while — so keeps Throbbing's Relish —
And I! confide in Love — Faith's Sonnet
To pour the Poetry it's worth of Art — Wm. Irving
