

Prevailing In spite of the Problems Are you growing? Part 1

There are so many problems to be had especially with the times we are living in. The truth be told, for some people they are wanting to know, how am I going to prevail through this? While on the other hand some Americans and other nations are saying I am prevailing in spite of the problems I face.

Today we are speaking to the people who feel like they are stuck in their situation. I want to say I can concur with you as I sit in a decelerated situation. Everyday there are some type of problem the population I am face. Sometimes the situations are so scary, all you have is prayer and your faith. Because the people you trust can be so fickle. Here today, gone tomorrow.

For example, you can be friend with someone for years. Then when Sally Sue comes by that ~~be~~^{been} only knowing your friend or family member for a short period. All Sally trying to do is have a spot light on her. The Grind is all about her or him because they are selfish and jealous. But your friend or family member so blind, Sally, Sue Corrie done slip in cause confusion based on lies ruining your relationship with your friend or family member. You have leave those type of people alone. Cause if we been knowing each other a long time or we blood. Someone that easily can come in ruin a whole relationship. That says a lot about the friend or family member. I previously had a situation like this.

The lesson I am learning from many of the situation I am encountering is people are controlling in this generation. They will dictate your next move, what you ~~are~~ not deserving of their is all kinds of traps set for me to fall into. The accuser of the brethren has been working over time. The church people can be something else. They go through the doors, at the same time persecuting you. The same people you work with goes through the same doors, but they are persecuting you on your job. The same person you thought loved you when they said I do is persecuting you even though you sleep in the same bed. I have been talked about alot lately out of jealousy and because I carry myself in a respectful way. The sad thing about it, the people who is talking has problems that don't acknowledge and not willing to correct them. Many of them are very haughty in the wrongs they are doing. I am not in denial I have issue. But nobody is going to make me feel like I am less than while I am working on my issues. We all have issue Proverbs 4:23 keep your heart with all diligence - for out of it spring the issue of life.

People has been dragging me through the mud out of jealous and lust this one person has been causing me problems. The particular place I am in. Consist of a bunkmate or bunkmates. I always get the worst bunkmates. "that want to hang on this clause" She always have bunkmate problems. Each time its the bunkmate creating the storm in my life. When I moved in the room I read my bible and faithful pray, fast etc. I been doing this the whole 28 years. That my meditation and relationship with Christ has kept my mind, body, and soul. Has protected me as well as my family. I was in the choir when I moved in the room with her.

She said her friend invited her to choir try outs. Well, I was hoping that she didn't make it. One she gets mad when I am reading and praying as if she is mad at God. On the other hand she ~~lives~~ lives in self pity wanting someone to feel sorry for her like a child. Third she is a people pleaser not matter if it can destroy her whole life she is going to please that person. I said maybe if she gets in her word and seek God's face - ~~the~~ she will allow him to work ~~her~~ her life. A couple months in the choir - we had a big singing obligation. We had no solo artist. She step up to the plate I said oh lord she already do everything in the name of self centeredness and she has a bully mentality.

Where she has to be in control. Immediately we begin to see more of spirit of haughty (iness) where she started to portray herself better. Instead of her blessing others as a woman of God. If she give me soup she want two back. She indignant people really has been taken advantage of. But she posing as a angel of light. to draw people in her chaos. against me. She does things to me I questioned her why. are you keep accountability of my flaws while excusing yours. Each time I am told I think I am better than others. which is false- accuser of the brethren. But this is how she keep people at Bay while she does whatever she want to. Remember we dealing with a self righteous, self pity and think she deserve the best of everything while other suffer at her expense.

All of certain at night pervert things begin to happen in the room. The Holy Ghost would wake me up. As this lady watching me. I've caught her several time - then she will hurry up in turn over and get back in bed. She constantly watching me and when I am communicating with others she is watching. She told me the other day you dont laugh with me like you do those people. On another occasion I was told you dont hug me like you do other people. What I look like hugging my bunkmate a grown behind female everyday. Some of the stuff is graphic I cannot share. I live in a room with a certified pervert that is in a whole relationship with me. I have been praying and fasting. Cause these days and times you have to use wisdom of who you talk to. Because not everyone has wisdom. She is also one of the ones who keeps persecuting me day in and day out. I have been praying day in and day out move my mountain. Protect me from all harm.

Another problem I have been battling with is the delay of treatment for ~~fibroid~~ fibroid cyst and a tumor. Last year I was suppose to have surgery but the Obgyn doctor said that I was changing life so the fibroid cyst would shrink on their own. But that has not happened. In fact they have gotten Iarger till the point its messing with my bowels and urinating. It feels like I am carrying a child. Like to say my back is hurting and I havent had a bowel movement I dont know when. I went through my proper channels but having received ~~the~~ help as of yet. All I can do is pray and stand on Gods word as I wait to be seen.

Financial struggles are real as my dad passed away who ~~was~~ as my ~~first~~ provider. So I understand how it feels to be depleted of financial resources. Especially that I can work and make money where I am at. I found myself praying asking God to supply my needs according to His riches and glory. When you dont have nobody to help you in your trouble. God will be right that if you call Him. For This is one of my favorite scriptures Jeremiah 33:1-3 Moreover the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah a second time, while ~~he~~ he was still shut in the court of the prison, saying, Thus says the Lord who made it, the Lord who formed it to establish it (the Lord is his name): Call to me and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know.

In each situation I have seen a opportunity to grow. Genesis 35:10 God reminded Jacob of his new name, Israel, which meant "he struggles with God". Although Jacob's life was littered with difficulties and trials, his new name was a tribute to his desire to stay close to God despite life's disappointments.

Many people believe that Christianity should offer a problem free life. Consequently, as life gets tough they draw back disappointed, instead, they should determine to prevail with God through life's storm. Problems and difficulties are painful but inevitable, you might as well see them as opportunities for growth. You can't prevail with God unless you have troubles to prevail over.
