Hello Alberto,

My name is Jennifer and I am 50 years old. I am a professional blogger and just graduated with a degree in Bachelor of Arts in Business Communication. I triple minor Business administration, Business Management and Sociology. My life is difficult. I been incarcerated 28 years now currently in Pulaski State Prison in Hawkinsville, GA. I didn't choose this, it came as a result violation of due process and civil rights. I also like cultural heritage, history, football, basketball, baseball etc I love meeting others from other cultural. I was learning Spanish but I had to spend many hours into my studies at Ashland University. I earned a Associate of hospitality from the middle Georgia Tech. I have a question what do you like about the National Health Service? what don't you like about the national Health Service? you can answer these questions privately. you can send me pictures of your country and culture at the following address:
