

BETWEEN THE BARS - post 4th & 5th

dear ERIC... Hello son, I Love You!

let me tell you a part of my life it was not even a year later my parents & cheryl were living in a house on Sela drive over in Alief Area of Houston, my mom your grandmother was battling lung then breast cancer after she died it was hard for me to deal with ASK your mom ERIC she'll tell you. she didn't help me with my grieving, she moved in with your other grandmother MELBA this was 1984, you were born JUNE 5 1982 not a whole year old yet?

my 2nd oldest brother Ryo, he just past in November 2024, but then in 1984... so he asked me to move to San Diego CA. where I lived maybe about a year or less I missed home which was TX... and you, but of course I had no home to go to, your mom was living in a apartment? where?

After we divorced, your mom was with a man already so quick & was I think living with him some where in Houston, TX, she took you to Georgia, this is a year + of my Life I thought you should know, then when I came back from Texas I got arrested for traffic tickets that turned into warrants I had to do County Jail & pay for my time 85 & 86, being I got to live with my dad, I worked still didn't get to see you your mom continued to move around eventually got lost from me... the little bit of money I made, was I to give it to you for child support? Again Ask Mom...

I eventually got to see you but briefly... then I caught this case in early 1989, right before I met a young lady her name was Alpha Omega Gonzales, she was engaged if she married her last would of been Scroggins... I would tell & talk to her about you, even Conner you gave me a grandson, sure we don't know each other but you & Conner asked how we can reach out... phone calls?
