

Hello Alberto from Italy! (Italianguy)

Thank you so much for transcribing my post! Without people like you contributing a little time to things like this, we prisoners would just be screaming into the void. It feels a lot like that most of the time anyway, but your attention and care make it all worth it. Thanks!

I see you're Italian — have you ever travelled to the United States? My friend was teaching me some Italian a few years ago. Ma io l'Italiano non lo parlo tanto bene. Magari mi potresti dare una mano a impararlo? 😊

Thank you again, I'm so grateful for the effort you and others who care put into helping ~~is~~^{those} of us inside these cages to have a voice outside of them. Grazie mille!!
