

To Have Lost

Who goes to war together and returns
Home only to fight each other after?—

Love Lovin'— Love loses its stake later
Nevertheless!, the waterfall mus' churn
Spectacular as Breathtaking shalt earn
More than one look to overlook matters

Contemplating the afore, and latter

Once a friend!, now a foe as the earth turns
On its axis bleeding abroad— and home
Profound, as looking into the eyes tears

What we can't change— or— relive its friending—

Love Lovin'— Love Loses to have lost home and!, Love don't live here any more— non bears

To kill Well-Wishes with Ill-Wills ending— Wm. IRVING

2 of Poetry

Faithful!, as 2 of Poetry mus' kiss—

Loyal as Letters' love Famous Poets,

All mus' love Love!, and experience Bliss

As silk as its' reputation' duets

To see if Words' Worth could sex her craz— or—

Truth of Poets!, makes Love its' existence

Royaling the Faithful spoke of pi or.

It!, what's to say, mus' b. said— then, sentence

All that manifest from Heart "Poetry"

Loyal-to-the-Letter!, its' curve concise

A thought lost, is nothing gained to wink eye

Of pen— or— sonnet about percise

As silk!, as Love speaks passages to mae

Poetry into his arms— Truth b. facts— Wm.
