Hmm. Thanks again, I cono-classy, for commenting my older posts ("Health Alert!" April 3, 2023). But I can't help noticing an irony: you wrote how sad it is that people out there come to this site, comment in mate blogs, then disappear. I got 4 or 5 comments from you in a short time, now nothing for about six months. "

Is that the "icono" part? Because it doesn't seem too classy. I do hope to hear from you again. Hopefully my little snideness here doesn't discourage you. Like you said, it's a real loss when people engage and then just stop. Sincerely, Dymitri
