"THE DETERRENT THAT IS THE DEATH PENALTY"

By Ronald Wayne Clark Jr.

We hear all the time about the death penalty being a deterrent to murder. But let's face it, Americans are captivated by violence! We try to sustain violence, with violent acts! Murder will curb murder! That doesn't even sound right. Just repeat that and listen to it. Nothing about it makes sense. You try to instill in your kids, that two wrongs don't make a right, but America uses the death penalty, highest form of premeditated planned out murder, that takes you down to the very last "MINUTE", of the taking of a human life, to halt the act of killing. Homicide's to stop homicides! Don't do as I do, do as I say! And we wonder why the death penalty doesn't work? The death penalty doesn't, and will never deter a homicide. Because people don't commit crimes, thinking their going to get caught. If they did, they wouldn't break the law.

People speed because they want to get there faster, and they don't believe their going to be pulled over. Thousands of speeding tickets are written daily, And how many times have you gotten away with speeding? See my point? People run stop signs because they think no ones looking and their not going to get caught. People steal, because they believe, they will not get caught. If people knew they were going to be caught, they wouldn't do it. If people knew, then your theory of the death penalty being a deterrence, would have validity. People drink and drive because alcohol dulls the senses in the brain, to where the individual makes really bad decisions. They react without thinking. Look at how many law enforcement officer's, Warden's, Assist Wardens, attorneys and even Judges who have been pulled over for DUI. In theory the law works as a deterrent, in reality people don't think they will be caught. And a lot of times, they aren't caught.

For instance my codefendant lied his way out of a murder. Just go over and look at the evidence, his statement of where he's at, at the time of the shooting of this 38 year old white male. You see it here at: <http://fcadpinfo.wixsite.com/fcadp/ronald?lang=en>
<http://fcadpinfo.wixsite.com/dris/blog/categories/ronald-w-clark-jr>

You see in his own statements, he puts his self everywhere but where he was. You even see the mistakes he made in his statement and then tries to clean them up. He steals the gun,(murder weapon) from a woman's house out of her bedroom closet, that he's working for. He lies about where he steals the gun from. He chooses to bring the gun that night, he unequivocally chose this dark location, where he wants the victim to stop, so he can shoot this victim, and take his truck without being seen! If he didn't want this man to die, he would have said, pull into this store. And we would have gotten out and the victim would have went on his way. He chose to kill this man! He chooses to sell the victims truck for $800.00 which failed, he chooses to sell the murder weapon, he chose to put the gun under the driver's seat of the truck, where it was found by the police. If you look at the facts, I've drank right at a case of beer before the actual shooting! Every shot fired hit the victim. The windows weren't shot out! Think about it! Who's the one most sober? Who's driving the truck? Who's making all the decisions throughout the night and weekend? Wasn't me! But yet I sit here in this cage waiting to die for a murder that he got away with! And if that's not bad enough, these dishonorable Judges hid physical evidence, that would have exonerated me, and now they've destroyed it! They didn't do that thinking they would get caught. They did it knowing they would get away with it. And so far so good, they (Judges) have by botching my appeals interfering with my appeal lawyer's etc, but I'm persistent, more persistent than they imagined!!

And as they say, I'm beating a dead dog and won't let it go! AND I'M NOT GOING TO LET THIS MISCARRIAGE OF JUSTICE GO!!! I'm going to keep screaming about what they've done all the way to the end! U.S. law's didn't deter my codefendant from beating his wife and kids and then girlfriend once completing 11 years for killing this man. No the death penalty didn't deter my codefendant from killing this man! He wasn't thinking about the consequences! Just like you don't think about the consequences of speeding, drinking and driving or any of the other laws that you violate every day. If the death penalty was a true deterrent, people that wanted to commit murders, would go to a non death penalty state and commit the murder there. Which is unequivocal evidence that the death penalty fails as being a deterrent to murder. Because non death penalty state's have lower homicide rates than death penalty states! And that's a fact! Anyone who claims its a deterrent, is not looking at the true facts. Serial Killers don't go to non death penalty state's to kill! All serial killer's are mentally ill and psychologically messed up! The death penalty will never be a deterrent for them. It will never be a deterrent to a drunk who can't think straight because of alcohol, or someone who kills in a fit of rage. Facts are facts, and the facts speak loud and clear, the death penalty doesn't save lives, it just let's society sink to the unimaginable morals of the killer. Because that is all you have accomplished. I encourage you to join the anti death penalty movement, be better than the drunk, or that enraged murderer, or mentally ill serial killer who's sick twisted mind gets a thrill from taking a life. Be better than that. Don't lose your morals behind this fraud of the death penalty being a deterrent. Cause as you see, its not a deterrent. God bless you.
